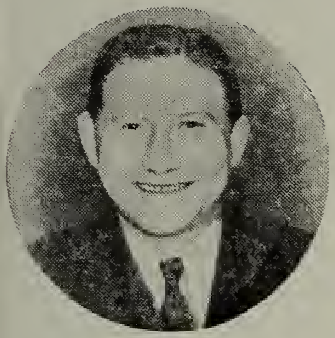
By Bill Gersh



THE PLEDGE

This past week's issue contained a pledge which The Cash Box hopes will receive the complete support of all in this industry. There is no doubt that a great many in this business are very much disturbed over the type of equipment they have been receiving after ordering in good faith and even wiring the money in advance of shipment. These men, along with The Cash Box, are confident in the belief that this evil can be cured by the complete cooperation of all the members of this industry.

There is no use in attempting to force people to do something they do not want to do. This has been learned long ago by all in this industry. Many have written to The Cash Box and suggested openly published reports on firms whose shipments can be proven to be imperfect and whose intentions, in advance, were to never ship anything but miserable equipment.

The Cash Box believes, instead, that by adopting the pledge which appeared in its past week's issue, to cooperate with all fellow firms in this industry, and to specify in advance of sale the exact condition of equipment, that this evil will be cured. Only by cooperating with each other can the men now comprising this industry assure themselves of better conditions today and finer business standards for the post-war era.

Those men who will pledge themselves to give complete, true and full information regarding the equipment they intend to sell, will certainly find that all others will cooperate with them. Those who do not care to pledge themselves to cleaner business practise, are probably the same men who will ship anything they can get their hands on, regardless of condition and without mechanics going over the machines, or even without seeing the machines themselves in many instances, simply to grab what money they can at this time because of the unusual market condition that prevails.

It is far better for the members of this industry to willingly enter into a pledge to work with each other honestly in these tragic times than for anyone to publicly hold a firm up to scorn. In short order, those firms that are shipping merchandise of poor character will be called to the attention of the trade anyway by their own actions. They will suffer severely in the long run.

It is the hope of The Cash Box that those who haven't as yet signed this pledge will do so immediately, to let the industry know that it is their wholehearted intention to cooperate with all in this business and to help their fellow coinmen as much as they possibly can. Surely this pledge contains nothing that can be construed in any fashion whatsoever as anything but what each man in this industry wants for himself, his friends, and certainly for his customers.

All that is necessary, according to this pledge, is to honestly tell the buyer the exact condition of the merchandise that is being shipped to him and to so crate this merchandise that shipping damage will be minimized and even completely eliminated.

THE SURVEY

Letters already received indicate impatience on the part of a great many coinmen as to the collective result of the survey to help determine a standard for jobber and distributor recognition. Undertaken as an aid to the trade for the post-war period this survey has captured the fancy of the industry. The large number of returns already received are indicative of the fact that this business wants and seeks greater heights in the years to come.

The results of this survey will take some weeks to compute. Naturally, every single question that was asked, required much thought and study. These questions, as explained at the time, were the result of a great number of discussions with leading coinmen thruout the country. They were a collection of everything that these men believed everyone else wanted to know and to have brought to the forefront for the benefit of all the trade.

"The Coin Machines Merry-Go-Round"

As yet returns continue to arrive daily. These will take a few weeks to compile, classify and clarify. Many have given personal opinions in addition to answering the questions that appeared. Some failed to answer a few questions. Some misunderstood a question or two. In general, tho, almost everyone carefully answered each and every-question appearing in this survey.

No individual opinions will be given in the final report of this survey. The complete survey will be treated as a collective opinion in every regard. This will be the trade's opinion as to what the trade itself believes should be considered as a basis for jobber and distributor recognition. This will also be the very first time in the history of this industry that any publication has undertaken so gigantic a task. It again proves the need for some bureau in this industry which will be prepared to further the interests of this business by continued effort of this kind.

A recognition bureau becomes a greater necessity each day. The Cash Box believes that by presenting the collective results of this survey before the trade the industry itself will be able to judge as to just what should be done in this regard. There is no doubt that when completed the results of this survey will prove startling to all in this industry, and may even prove to be the wedge that will open the path to greater achievement and finer business standards.

WILL NEW MACHINES DROP PRICES?

Tho The Cash Box considers this extremely premature, yet it is already the subject of many conversations among leading coinmen. These men are holding back from purchasing any large quantities of equipment on the theory that when the new merchandise is announced by the manufacturers, even tho such announcement does not mean immediate deliveries of the machines that prices of all present equipment they have in stock or on their routes will fall to such low points as to be considered practically worthless. In fact, some of these men believe that machines at present considered among the best in the industry will lose as much as from 75% to 95% of their value.

These coinmen admit that in the beginning, after the first announcements, deliveries at best will be very slow. Most attribute this to the fact that raw materials will not be obtained in sufficient quantities for mass production. The factories themselves will need some time to get back into the swing of coin machines manufacture, after their complete concentration in war work. There is also the belief that some of the manufacturers will be sure to be caught short and will need a little time to test whatever products they first produce, even if these are probably the last machines they made prior to being forced out of domestic production.

It is also considered certain that the manufacturers will require some time to get their new employees into the swing of coin machines manufacture. Production line changes and other factors will also hold down any quantity production for the time being. In fact, to be perfectly frank, most of the men are agreed that it will take anywhere from 6 to 18 months after the first announcements of new machines manufacture being allowed prior to seeing production somewhat on the scale it was last known, before the war.

That being the case, The Cash Box does not agree that there will be such tremendous drops as from 75% to 90% in the value of the average present used machines. Perhaps some of the oldest type of machines will drop as much as 50% in price, but since nothing will actually be prsented to take their place, The Cash Box is of the belief that there may be no serious drop in the price of even such used merchandise. The moment the war is over and the manufacturers do hastily announce their re-entrance into the field, there may be a somewhat hysterical drop in the prices of all types of used merchandise. But as the weeks go by and the production of the factories does not show a tremendous spurt, there is no doubt that the price of used machines will go up once again.

One big reasoh will be the return to the trade of many men who have just been waiting for the war to finish. They will be willing to purchase any type of equipment, regardless of price, to obtain locations and thereby insure those locations remaining theirs when the new machines are ready. In short, they will be willing to buy any type of used machine and figure the cost of the machine as the cost of helping to obtain a location. At the same time there is no doubt that the used equipment will pay for itself even before the new machine gets into the spot.

The average coinman will agree that there are a tremendous number of locations available everywhere in the nation. This is due to the numbers of men who have sold out entire routes to enter into the armed forces and into war work. This is also due to the fact that many machines have already worn and are wearing out and have to be pulled, and there is nothing with which to replace them. It is also a fact that when the war is over a great many new locations will be ready to accept coin operated equipment.

Therefore regardless of how old the machine, as long as it is rushed into the spot - just to hold this location - the newcomer or the returned coinman has a chance when the new machines arrive. From this standpoint alone The Cash Box believes that prices of present used machines will zoom immediately after a hesitant drop on the first announcements by the manufacturers of new equipment.

Coinmen will need used equipment to grab the largest possible number of locations for themselves. Even those at present engaged in the industry, since the greater majority have cut down on the size of their routes, will also start out grabbing for used equipment of practically any type to insure holding the right spots for themselves when the new machines begin to arrive.

Tho The Cash Box is in agreement that prices will drop somewhat on first announcements of new machines manufacture it is not in agreement that this will be a long and severe drop. Instead, it will be a psychological price drop, which will come back with plenty of vigor as the trade realizes that the new equipment will not come in speedily enough, nor in sufficient quantity, to take care of the tremendous backlog demand which easily, at this time, exceeds 1,000,000 machines of all types.

The trade can look ahead for many months after the first announcements of new machines manufacture to continuing its present business methods. There is also no doubt that when new machines are announced, that a great many nefarious practises will change with exceeding rapidity for these men will not at such time wish to offend possible customers nor win bad names with the manufacturers who will naturally hear of their actions.

The Cash Box is in agreement that prices on present equipment will probably be completely wiped out about 18 months after manufacture has started. Tho most firms believe that they will be able to export a large amount of this equipment at good prices, this, too, is doubtful. The average British, Canadian and other foreign coinman, is today as well acquainted with the industry as is the American coin machines man.

BRINGING 'EM BACK

Reports received from thruout the country verify the fact that machines are growing scarcer and more difficult to obtain each day. There are many machines as yet to be dug out of cellars and attics and barns thruout the country which would prove of tremendous value to the trade at this time. If the more progressive men in this industry will get into action in this direction they are sure to find many machines right in their own territory which they never before suspected existed. This has been proven time and time again by agressive coinmen.

Many coinmen, to obtain equipment, have used advertising in local newspapers in the hope that by so doing they would reach smaller operators who had stored their equipment and were now war workers or away to the armed forces. Many report that they were successful in obtaining some equipment in this fashion. Others have simply combed over their old lists and have written letters advising that they would pay good prices for coin operated equipment and have also been able to dig up some machines in this fashion. Generally it has been the direct visitor, the salesman, who travels about thruout the hinterland, who has been able to bring much equipment to market which was formerly hidden away in dark basements or attics, garages and barns.

SEASONAL ARCADES

The time grows shorter each day to when the seasonal arcades will be opening for their '44 season. This is the time for those arcade owners to meet and arrange to speed the action for a better understanding as well as a definite decision regarding their taxation problem. They will thereby assure themselves more profitable operation.

There is no doubt that all seasonal arcade men are in agreement that something must be done and done quickly so that they again won't have to purchase full year licenses to operate for just about three months this summer season.

A national meet of arcade owners is necessary. At such a meeting, featuring national representation of the arcade field, agreements can be reached on the methods of procedure. A meeting of all the arcade owners to appoint a committee to act for them will tremendously impress the Ways & Means Committee in Washington and any others with whom the committee will have to make contact.

A petition should be started now to obtain the signatures of all arcade owners thruout the country in an effort to help change this ruling. The arcade owner should be allowed to purchase his licenses on a quarter-yearly basis. This is one field that is assured a glowing future if its members will work together.

"Talking Out Loud"

GOOD WORK

"Curley" Robinson of A.O.L.A.C., Los Angeles, Calif., again sends in a few letters we are mighty proud to publish. The first one comes from U. S. Naval Construction Battalion Number 125, c/o Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, Calif., and reads as follows:

"May I express my thanks and gratitude for your generous contribution of the three pinball machines to our recreational gear.

"I am sure that when we reach our destination, Island X, the machines will aid greatly in reviving memories of the good old United States. It will also take up a considerable amount of the spare time which in some of the war zones becomes unbearable for the men.

"Thanking you again on behalf of the Enlisted Men and Officers of our Battalion."

The second letter is from the Bell Gardens Hospitality Hut in Bell Gardens, Calif., and is written to "Curley" by Frank L. Brown, President of the Board. It reads:

"May we express to you the appreciation of the Board, and the pleasure and gratitude of the entire personnel of the Bell Gardens Hospitality Hut for the gift of your marble machine.

On the first day it was installed the Hut entertained more than one hundred service men. Their delight in its being there was very apparent."

DIRECT SALES

Bill Gilles of Gilles Candy Co., Osage, Ia., who built Tailgunner and received quite a bit of commendation for this gun revamp, writes, "Am enclosing check for renewal of my subscription. Don't figure I will be reading The Cash Box much after a while, as I will be wearing Uncle Sam's khaki, but, not for long, as it's going to be over pretty damn soon.

"You're doing a fine job with The Cash Box. Why don't you stress the idea of not selling direct to locations? All jobbers are guilty of doing it, and after the war believe that a great many will continue to do so, to get rid of the many old machines that will become antiquated.

"I have a resort town and you would be surprised at the number of locations that have their own machines. Take this for what it's worth, but I believe a program should be worked out to tell of the harm this practise causes operators."

(First of all, we're sure sorry to hear that Bill Gilles will be leaving us. But, regarding selling direct to locations, this is the very reason that The Cash Box decided that its circulation should be nothing else but exclusively and solely and completely active coin machines men. We do not appear on newsstands and we do not circulate broadcast thruout the countryside. That's why we call The Cash Box, "The Confidential Weekly Of The Coin Machines Industry.")

TRAVELOGUE

Tom Smallwood of Collette & Smallwood, Idaho Falls, Idaho, who has just returned from a two months vacation in Mexico (pronounced Meh-Hic-Co) was so enthused over visiting there that he dropped us a letter which reads like a travelogue.

Tom writes, "Just returned from a two months vacation. Spent a month in Mexico City. Went to Vera Cruz, Acapulco and Guadalajara. Life magazine, February 22 issue, had quite a spread regarding the above mentioned cities in Mexico.

"Mexico City is a great city. Population over 2,000,000. Altitude over 7,000 feet. And in some sections is as modern as New York.

"Saw a few phonographs, mostly old models of various makes, but no slots. The government takes care of the gambling situation with their own lottery. Races were on and well attended.

"The big attraction is the bull fight on Sundays. Starts at 4 P.M. and six bulls are killed during the performance. The bowl, or ring, holds over 35,000 people and it's jammed to capacity. Getting tickets for this is like securing tickets for the World's Series in the States."

(Editors note: Wouldn't you, too, like to spend a month in Mexico City, just looking at bull fights on Sundays and breathing in the rare and clear air on weekdays while troubadors twang on mandolins in the moonlight and gay senoritas sing sweet songs in your pearly ears? Wouldn't you? Then be a good little operator and operate like hell so that you, too, will be able to visit Mexico.)

POST-WAR

To get some idea of how big business is trying with all possible means to offset any trying period that may follow the end of the war, the following excerpts from a letter written by A. D. Whiteside, President of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., will possibly open the eyes and minds of many in this industry.

Mr. Whiteside writes: "Contract cancellations and renegotiations of profits are unquestionably the two outstanding features of our present war economy, not only because of their importance in the appraisal of individual credit risks, but also because of their vital effect upon the post-war planning of every commercial and industrial business enterprise in the country.

"At the end of World War I, cancellations of contracts for war equipment, materials and supplies totalled $7,500,000,000. Cancellations of World War II contracts exceeded $12,000,000,000 by the close of 1943, and undoubtedly have increased since then to more than twice the amount of World War I cancellations.

"In 1943, 23,500 prime contractors and sub-contractors were renogotiated on their 1942 war business."

SWEET ADELINE

James W. Johnson, Collector of Internal Revenue for New York City's third district, reported today that if the boys at the bar give out with "Sweet Adeline" slightly off key, it's alright. But, if the singers sound professional, the 30% cabaret tax may have to be levied, he said.

NEWARK ARCADES

One of our Newark, N. J. subscribers, who forgot to mention his name, sends us a clipping from the Newark Evening News of Monday, April 3, wherein the headline reads: "It's Spring in Market St. When Arcades Flourish." And the sub-heading reads: "Fun Emporiums with Their Clatter and Color Enjoying War Boom."

It certainly must have been Spring in the fancy of the reporter who tapped out the story for it starts, "The most garish of war-boomed business here are the amusement arcades, the sidewalk fun emporiums whose wide open doorways are a sure sign of Spring in Market St. as any calendar."

Market Street, by the way, is the main drag in Newark, N. J., and the leading arcades are practically downstairs of the offices of the Newark Evening News. Therefore this reporter didn't have to travel far to get his story which covers about two full columns. He does go on to say:

"Soldiers, sailors, street urchins and other restless strollers with a spare nickel or two and an itch to twang a slot box lever are crowding the pinball halls these days.

"What the resultant clatter (bells, horns, buzzers, etc.) lacks in tune it doubles in brass. And just as loud are the crashing greens, blues, reds and yellows of the arcade gun ranges and bagatelle lights.

"Servicemen, particlarly, flock to the slot machines urging they 'learn to shoot for America, 5 cents' and 'trap the Jap, 2 sents' and 'torpedo the sub, improve your aim, 1 cent.'

"Funny thing about soldiers', remarked one arcade host, as he collected precious steel bb's from the shooting gallery floor with a magnet, 'they're lousy shots. They miss everything but the back wall. Maybe they ain't used to the guns.' "

And the reporter goes on to tell about one arcade owner who made 11 hits out of 12 tries and told him that civilians were better shots than service men because the service men are accustomed to heavier guns. And he also told the reporter that he probably would have scored 100% but for the fact that he didn't have his glasses with him. Anyway the item winds up with some really fine description, as follows:

"When 20 to 40 bagatelle machines are being pumped and the shooting range is in use, the noise can be heard several hundred yards up and down the street. But the more noise, the more nickels for the arcade men. They love the non-stop raucous symphony of clangs, crashes, bongs, toots, cracks, pops, squeeks, howls, yelps, hoots and burps — for then it's really Spring in Market Street."

(And the really funny part of this whole story — is that a terrific snow storm covered all Newark, N. J., in fact the whole Eastern area—the very next day after this article appeared. Spring? Phooey!)

SLUG MAKERS

Any person manufacturing or selling slugs to be used to obtain free cigarettes, stamps, admissions or other articles or services from coin operated machines will henceforth run the risk of a $3,000 federal fine and year's imprisonment under the terms of a Bill signed by President Roosevelt on April 3, 1944. (And that's no April Fool joke. Note carefully the words "selling" and "services". Read this over again.)

Fun Not Rationed

As long as big sister's outgrown skates keep rolling, her days are golden. Safe in America, far from the fury of war, she is free from the terror which children in war-torn lands must now endure.

Will the days of her youth and womanhood be as golden as her childhood? Only if American fighters win crushing victory over the dark forces which threaten the future of every free child in the world.

And American fighters can win victory—decisive, durable victory—only if we who remain at home—safe in America, far from the fury of war—are willing to sacrifice.

Buy War Bonds. Buy the Bonds you can easily afford as a sound investment. Then dig down again and buy Bonds as a sacrifice—in memory of an unknown lad who died to safeguard the future of a little girl close to you.

THE CONFIDENTIAL PRICE LISTS

AN EXCLUSIVE MERCHANDISING SERVICE FOR THE COIN MACHINES INDUSTRY

ISSUED EVERY WEEK BY: THE CASH BOX, 381 FOURTH AVE., NEW YORK 16, N.Y.

FOREWORD

Many times, wide differences appear in the high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter The Confidential Price Lists can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. The Confidential Price Lists act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices exactly as they are quoted for each week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some machine prices do not change for months. The Confidential Price Lists, rather than show no price for the week, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known quoted prices as a basis to work with. Prices continue to be very widely divergent these days. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, condition, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, etc., must all be taken into consideration. The Confidential Price Lists report each quotation exactly as it is made and depend on the subscriber to make average price adjustment to fit the peculiarities of his own territory.

METHOD

The Confidential Price Lists are to be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price for the week; Second price listed is highest price for the week; Where only one price appears this should be considered lowest price.

CODE

CHECK THIS CODE CAREFULLY. BECOME ACQUAINTED WITH EACH ONE OF THE CODE NUMBERS AND WHAT THEY SIGNIFY. THESE CODE NUMBERS APPEAR IN FRONT OF THE NAME OF EACH MACHINE.

1. MEANS PRICE WENT UP.
2. MEANS PRICE WENT DOWN.
3. MEANS MACHINE JUST ADDED TO LIST.
4. MEANS PRICES WENT UP AND DOWN SAME WEEK.
5. MEANS PRICES REMAINED SAME AS IN PAST WEEK'S ISSUE.
6. MEANS NO PRICES QUOTED FOR PAST TWO WEEKS.
7. MEANS NO PRICES QUOTED FOR PAST THREE WEEKS.
8. MEANS NO PRICES QUOTED FOR PAST FOUR WEEKS OR LONGER.

IMPORTANT

Machines underlined mean these were most active in trading this past week.

NOTICE! March, 1942. Market Prices for Wholesalers as per GMPR of OPA appeared in September 7, 1943 issue. Reprints are available.

NEWS FLASH

FREE PLAY GAMES RULED "NOT GAMBLING" IN DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA BY U.S. COURT OF APPEALS.

The U. S. Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia ruled (April 17, 1944) in the case of the Washington Coin Machine Association vs Harvey G. Callahan, Assistant Superintendent of Metropolitan Police, in an appeal taken from the local district court (argued March 14, 1944) Judge Groner giving the following opinion:

> "These machines are lacking in the essential elements necessary to make of them gambling devices or gambling machines. There is no element of gain or loss, financial or otherwise, involved in the transaction.
> "One may not suppose that a person desiring to gamble would put up money in the hope of obtaining tokens which can be used only to produce insignificant humorous sayings. The amusement feature of the machine does not make the machine a gambling device. It arouses interest and perhaps attracts customers to the machine in much the same way as advertising would, but this is lawful.
> "The only chance connected with the operation of the machine is that wit or humor may momentarily brighten up the vacuous minds hunting amusement."

It is also understood that Judge C. J. Groner, who gave this decision which captured the fancy of the various presses located in Washington at this time and who rushed it over their wires to the nations' newspapers, will in a few weeks also rule on the legality of tokens in machines, but not for redemption. Washington coinmen eagerly look forward to his decision in this regard.

In the meantime the news that Washington, D.C., is again open to free play games has flooded this already overcrowded city with operators from as far away as Florida and many from New York City. Word comes thru that all these are getting ready to set pins just as fast as they can obtain them. Such eastern centers as New York, Newark, N.J., Philadelphia, Pa., Boston, Mass., and many other cities heard the news first and operators from these spots rushed to Washington seeking locations. This grand rush to operate in Washington is bringing chuckles to the District of Columbia ops who know the ropes as well as the many restrictions and especially the locations that proved worthwhile when pins ran last.

The entire case goes all the way back to 1936 before Judge Donahue in the Court of Equity. At that time the judge ruled that pin games were games of chance, and therefore gambling devices. (He meant the one-balls that were in operation in Washington at that time.)

In 1938 when free play pins made their appearance, Washington's ops placed them out cautiously, expecting this old ruling to apply to them, but the police did not molest the games. In 1942 the District Attorney came out with an opinion that these free play pin games were illegal and ordered the police department to pick them up on sight.

The ops went into city court and obtained a jury trial, after one storekeeper was arrested, to fight this order. The jury disagreed with the police department at this trial, but this was only on that one particular game which had been picked up.

Another game was immediately picked up by the police department and the ops then demanded an injunction restraining the police from molesting their machines. They lost the suit for this injunction in the District Court.

In 1943 the coin machines association of Washington took an appeal from this loss to the U.S. Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia on obtaining an injunction. This is the decision which has just been announced.

For a moment the frantic long distance phone calls that came in from everywhere in the country to The Cash Box were starting something of a rampage. Many misinterpreted the press release in this case which appeared in their daily newspapers by just reading that, "Free Play games have been termed not gambling by the U.S.Court of Appeals". Many coinmen therefore believed that this decision came from a high Federal court and would affect the entire country.

This is not a Federal decision covering the nation. It is instead a decision for the District of Columbia from the U.S.Court of Appeals for that district only.

MANUFACTURERS MEET APRIL 26

A meeting of all coin machines manufacturers and trade press representatives has been called by the C. M. I. for April 26, 1944. The meeting will be held at Groetchen's Restaurant, Madison Street and Crawford Avenue, in Chicago. Dinner will be served at 6:30 P. M., to be followed by a floor show, after which, the manufacturers will participate in an open meeting to discuss all ideas pertaining to the future welfare of the industry. This is not being done because of any rash anticipation that the war may soon end. Most of the manufacturers are deep in war work and this is their chief concern until victory is won.
